

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT TRAINING PROGRAM

Customized in-person teacher-training program and online courses for non-native English speakers looking to improve language skills, teaching methods, and learn about culture in the United States.

Over the past 30 years, TIEC has successfully completed more than 50 customized teacher-training programs in Austin, Texas for educators in the United States and around the globe.

- Program ranges 2 weeks - 6 months
- Accommodates various group sizes
- Offers Intensive English classes and cultural activities
- Includes a residency in a Texas public school classroom
- Housing location assistance
- Customized in-country training programs also available

Why TIEC?

The Texas International Education Consortium (TIEC) is a private non-profit that represents international partnerships, collaborations, and exchanges for 31 public universities across the state of Texas, and runs the most experienced Intensive English Program in the state.

TIEC's U.S.-based programs and online courses provide extensive opportunities for EFL educators to enhance their proficiency, fluency, and confidence in English, as well as to expand their familiarity with United States culture through everyday experiences and cultural activities.

TIEC employs highly qualified Master and PhD level instructors, and has taught more than 30,000 students from 131 countries since 1965.

For more information and a sample proposal of our program, contact Heather Farmakis, PhD, Chief Learning Officer at Heather.Farmakis@tiec.org.

tiec

Texas International Education Consortium

 @TIEPAustin

 @TexasConsortium

 @TexasIntensiveEnglish

 Texas International Education Consortium

Learn more at www.tiec.org

